

Irish Independent

The Irish Independent holds the unique and undisputed position as Ireland's largest selling and best read daily newspaper. This is a testament to its authoritative and trusted platform of vibrant journalism across all sectors. This also underlines how our readers are reacting so positively to the Irish Independent's comprehensive package of ground-breaking news stories, cutting-edge sports coverage, informative and incisive features and magazines, first-class business and farming sections all of which set the agenda in their respective fields.

Each day within our dual format newspaper we deliver something for everyone in the Irish Independent. Every Monday we produce Ireland's leading Sports supplement along with the nation's best read health magazine Health & Living. Each Tuesday we circulate Farming, first for agricultural news, finance and livestock prices. Wednesday sees Midweek Sport, Commercial Property and our award winning Irish language newspaper Foinse. On Thursday, it's down to Business with the best economic and financial commentary from respected journalists such as Brendan Keenan, David McWilliams, Charlie Weston and Emmet Oliver. Propertyplus reviews the housing market every Friday while we help plan the nation's weekend with Ireland's best read entertainment magazine Day & Night. Each Saturday we publish Weekend, our market leading magazine with exclusive interviews, high profile features, restaurant reviews and a hugely popular 7-day TV listings guide, along with Review a reflection on the week that was.

With a line up like this it's clear to see why the Irish Independent is continually Ireland's national quality daily newspaper. <http://www.independent.ie/>

Newstalk 106-108 fm is Ireland's independent national talk radio broadcaster and brings the very best in opinions, analysis, entertainment and sport to 551,000 listeners weekly. Newstalk is wittier, sharper and more controversial than any other broadcaster. It's never afraid to try something new and provides more relevant content for a modern Ireland. It has top quality broadcasters such as George Hook, Sean Moncrieff, Ivan Yates, Tom Dunne and Eamon Dunphy. Over the years, the station has scooped several accolades at the PPI Awards, the Irish radio Oscars including being the current National Station of the Year. See www.newstalk.ie
