

50 top individuals and companies who have pioneered business as Gaeilge are to be honoured at a unique celebration in the Four Seasons Hotel, Dublin on Friday 22 May.

Our Top 50 nominees will be:

- Businesses based in the Gaeltacht or which operate in Irish
• Business leaders who are recognised as advocates for Irish language
• Businesses which use Irish as a marketing tool or provide services in Irish

Six of our Top 50 will be awarded with Special Achievement Awards at the gala luncheon.

Among those receiving this special accolade will be:

- Entrepreneur of the year
• A company or individual in the public sector which makes the most effective use of Irish as a marketing tool
• Company or individual in the private sector which makes the most effective use of Irish in service provision
• A company or individual which shows innovation and fresh thinking in their business by using the Irish language
• A company or individual located in the Gaeltacht which makes outstanding use of the Irish language in business

The Top 50 Business as Gaeilge awards will be marked by the publication of a special magazine profiling our Top 50 and celebrating their achievements
